LAMBING by Robbie Miles

When a ewe starts to lamb
She'll scratch upon the ground
She gazes at her belly
And then goes round and round
She'll lay down long and curl her tail
And push with all her might
But sometime there is a problem
That lamb stays out of sight
So then you have to feel within
For little lamb hoof toes
You don't want a tail
You need to feel it's nose
Pull the front legs nice and straight
With luck the rest will follow
And with luck it will take a breath
Cough, gulp and swallow
That little lamb then shakes it's head
And splatters you with goo
You give yourself a little smile
And say to your dog "That'll do!"
When you finish lambing
You are really very glad
Because when little lambs are racing around
The Good outweighs The Bad

HAILSHAM MARKET - PRIMESTOCK DAY

PRIME STOCK – WEDNESDAY 10TH APRIL

PRIME CATTLE (10) Auctioneer: Roger Waters

Top of the league Derek Southouse with his medium weight Limousin heifer at 273p per kg weighing in at 575kg ie £1569.75. Native breeds follow: Charles Diplock's homebred Aberdeen Angus x at 269p per kg and grossing £1600.55 and Mrs PA Greenwood's Beef Shorthorn x 265p per kg and grosses £1669.50.

Very much a stand on trade.

CULL CATTLE (8) Auctioneer: Roger Waters

Best fleshed cows can command bids near to £2.00 per kg and more - Friday
Street Farmers get close at 196p for their Aberdeen Angus x have Simmental x at 190p per kg. BF Armstrong & Son have lean Hereford x which sell to 175p per kg to feed on. Not often seen at Hailsham - Gloucester cows from S Gennings to 159p per kg.

CALVES (35) Auctioneer: Roger Waters

Large entry of calves - all sold - Stuart Thomas' Aberdeen Angus x Friesians find favour with bulls to £162 and heifers to £125. Plurenden Partnership from Ashford sell Fleckveih x heifers at £120, Aberdeen Angus x bulls £115 and heifers £110, Hereford x bulls at £112. Not forgetting Aberdeen Angus x Jersey bulls to £19. Good value? Who knows?

PIGS (25) Auctioneer: Alex Moss

Virtually every pig pen full this week and a lot of quality pigs forward. Trade was still there and showed an increase. Topping the day was King of the Landrace, John Brooker at 171p and 170p per kg grossing £184.68 and £178.50 per head. Mr & Mrs Arnold closely followed at 165p per kg and £152.62 per head. WJ & JE Murphy sell at 155p per kg and DG & VL Crush make 138p per kg. A strong run of Saddleback x Pietrain store pigs sold at £48 each.

SHEEP – 1678

Yet again, a big entry on the last day of Ramadan. Hailsham's top vendors were reaping a well deserved price reward for their quality offerings. N J Shearman's pedigree Texels come up trumps with hoggets at £225 per head and cull ewes at £269 per head. It is reported that the French army have taken part in the changing of the guard ceremony at Buckingham Palace. Appalling! Considering France wished to subjugate the British some years ago! In France it still remains illegal to call a pig Napoleon! The future Labour government plan to employ 5,000 new tax inspectors. Surely they should encourage business rather than prosecuting those who contribute to the country's wealth.
