HAILSHAM MARKET - PRIMESTOCK DAY

SHEEP - 1247

Definitely not enough meated hoggets or ewes for the level of trade experienced today. Next Wednesday is exactly two weeks before the end of Ramadan. It is strongly recommended that you get your sheep to Hailsham next week or the week after to take full advantage of the festival trade. Demand is anticipated to be strong.

It is a known fact that badgers transmit bovine TB. This will be exacerbated by the introduction of wild beavers throughout the UK by the re-wilding brigade who have no interest whatsoever in UK food production. It is now accepted, except by the politicians, that afforestation and re-wilding means less UK food production and with an ever expanding population, it is likely that increased food importation will result.

Wake up England!!! The writing is on the wall.

PRIME HOGGETS (700) Auctioneer: Nick Young Overall average 341.1p All the best meated hoggets sold extremely well. Under meated ones, predictably, did not. Top call to Danny Woolgar £205; closely attended by J & S Harmer, Offham £194 (twice); Tilley Farming Partnership £190. In the price per kilo stakes Jeremy West reigned supreme at 410p; all the Wests dominated the leaderboard with their excellent offering. Please make the meat and keep them coming. They are wanted at Hailsham.

Leading prices: AD Woolgar £205, J & S Harmer £194 (twice), Tilley Farming Partnership £190, Waters Partnership £188, £185 (twice), RD Thomas £188, £187, L Barrett £185 Leading prices per kilo: GN & J West 410p, 397p, 394p, 382p, 381p, Tilley Farming Partnership 399p, J & S Harmer 398p, 394p, L Barrett 394p, Jason West 393p
