Hole Farm Rams

2nd Annual On Farm Ram Sale

Fantastic day at the 2nd Annual Hole Farm Ram Sale last Saturday with a 100% clearance rate across all sections, driven by a huge demand from the numerous commercial buyers present. This sale is becoming a fixture in the local sheep farming calendar, and is a real social occasion helped by the bar & BBQ!

Wonderful turnout of buyers looking to source quality Suffolk and Logie Durno genetics. Huge thanks to all buyers and underbidders, your support is greatly appreciated.

In the Suffolk section commercial buyers were out in force with most rams trading between £1,000-£1,100 helped by the increasing popularity of Suffolk cross females and the premium for heavy lambs. Great to see all the commercial rams staying in the South East with buyers from Kent, Sussex, Surrey & Essex. Five Suffolk rams went away to pedigree flocks, and topped at £3,000 for lot 12 who goes to Debbie Lewis in Shropshire.

Durno and Texel rams topped at £1,200 on four occasions to regular buyers. Durno rams have carved out a reputation for producing top end fat and store lambs in the South East and buyers were keen to source these genetics. This run of quality rams from Logie Durno enjoyed a really level trade, averaging £945, with all rams bought by commercial buyers in the South East.

New for 2024 was a selection of MV & non MV shearling ewes. MV Logie and Suffolk x Logie shearling ewes topped out at £260. Which were followed by a really strong run of 40 Suffolk x Mules from Masters Farms, all bred by Hole Farm Suffolks, which topped out at £225 and averaged £220.

The sale was conducted by South East Marts with guest auctioneer Scott Lambie, who commented "It was a pleasure to sell top quality stock to such an enthusiastic ringside".

SHEEP – 1520

Proper numbers, in particular store lambs of which there were 896, and a “proper job” of a trade across the board. 20 years ago the Labour government banned fox hunting. The new Labour government threatens to ban trail hunting! However, under the Equality Act 2010 fox hunters cannot be discriminated against. The message is clear – support fox hunters, farmers and Clarkson who is doing something for the farming community.

STORE SHEEP (896) Auctioneer: Nick Young

A terrific entry and a humdinger of a trade from the many graziers present who were fuelled by “green grass fever”. Amy Dallyn, celebrated footballer from Hardham, captured the top three spots with her smart Suffolk cross ewe lambs £139; £132 and £115; Rosie Russell in close attendance £115; Terry Wigmore £111. Whether you are from Wadhurst or Midhurst, in between or further afield then Hailsham is the place to sell your store lambs.
