SHEEP – 1773

A good entry at Hailsham and the only dry day this week! All of Hailsham's faithful were well rewarded.

The good people of Sussex and Kent remain without water thanks to South East Water. All public utilities companies and their agents enjoy a legally privileged position which engenders incompetence to the significant disbenefit of their customers and landowners who they come into contact with. Surely a change is long overdue. Wake up England!
