HAILSHAM MARKET - PRIMESTOCK DAY

SHEEP – 747

A blisteringly hot day and a short entry. Many thanks to the excellent market staff for cooling the market with copious amounts of water and ensuring that all penned livestock had drinking water provided.

The trade across the board did not disappoint the faithful today!

It appears that Farage has “blotted his copy book”, which is likely to prevent him from Prime Ministerial office. Prince Harry loses his case against the Mail Group Newspapers. Who will pick up his legal bill?

PRIME LAMBS (439) Auctioneer: Nick Young SQQ 375.2p

A short entry but one which was full of quality. Numbers were short and the trade for the right meated ones was strong throughout. Well done to Gareth Evans with his top call at £217 per head taken by Charles Hepher. In the price per kilo stakes, Gareth Evans again tops at 413p.

Leading prices: G Evans £217, £198, K Reed £208, £195, D Lindon £203, R Russell £200, CP Tebbutt £197, JEC Farrant £195, CP Fuggle & Sons £190, M Brett £188

PRIME HOGGETS (31) Auctioneer: Nick Young SQQ 309.9p

STORE SHEEP (81) Auctioneer: Nick Young

Too few on offer to make an informed judgement as to where the trade will be one month hence as much depends on grass growth and numbers forward.

Leading prices: R Gorringe £122, £119, Lucy Young £108, Sean Alexander £81

CULL EWES & RAMS (194) Auctioneer: Nick Young

A truly exceptional trade from first to last and plenty of fireworks! For ewes and rams there is simply no better trade in the south than at dear old Hailsham. Top call to Oliver Hill, Uckfield whose ram realised £268; attended by auctioneer's favourite Rosemary Ford of Surrey whose smart Suffolks realised £225. Come to Hailsham. The trade is here and now!

Leading prices: Oliver Hill £268, Rosemary Ford £225, J Visser £220 £199, R Russell £208, Nathan Main £203, K Axell £200
