SHEEP – 2499

Yet another bumper entry at Hailsham. All prices held up well and particularly so against the national. Someone today said that Hailsham Market provided the best weekly trade for sheep between the Thames and the English Channel! Come to Hailsham and be part of its success!

*Not unsurprisingly the budget produced no help for farmers and fishermen.
Julius Ceasar, when he invaded Britain in 55 BC, is reputed to have said that the people of Kent were the most civilised in all of Britain!*

Please remember we sell store lambs 52 weeks of the year every Wednesday and also breeding sheep in the special breeding sheep section, new pens at the top of the market.
