ARTHUR M HARRIOTT AMH

The family of Arthur Harriott are sad to announce his passing on the morning of the 23rd of February at the age of 82. An exceptional cattle farmer, his knowledge and experience was invaluable and he was hugely respected by the industry. The vast number of people who knew him across the country will know that he willingly gave endless help and support to many farmers. Very much old school “No” was not part of his vocabulary, he delighted in finding the solution to any problem and his word was his bond. A great man, a true gentleman and a strong family man, he was surrounded by his wife Anne, his three children, David, Linda and Wendy, their partners and his six grandchildren in whom he took enormous joy.

On a more personal note, I have known Arthur for well over fifty years plus – selling cattle to him and on occasions selling cattle for him at Haywards Heath and Hailsham – many many thousands of cattle through the auction ring – AMH always there when you needed him, not only a reliable business colleague but a good friend.

Roger Waters.
