SHEEP (1808)

Auctioneer: Nick Young

Yet another bumper entry and more than last week!

MILK LAMBS (1012)

Overall average 203.4p per kilo

A good entry and a trade to match, amazingly slightly up on last week. It really does pay to shut them up overnight as bad weighers tend to damage the pocket. Nonetheless no complaints whatsoever although we always hope for a little more! The very best lambs realised £100 or more with well-known agricultural contractor Simon Feakes taking top price at £108.

Our advice is constant, make them meat, shut them up overnight and let us know what you have.

Leading prices: SD & JJ Feakes £108, SB & RA Sewell £101, BK Sargent £100, FS Major & Sons £100, £93, S Cripps £99, CA Fountain & S Sewell £96, £94, RG Whyman £96, K Baker & Son £96, WD Smith & Son £96, C Harber £95, L Barrett £94, M Lucas £93, A Brigdale £93

CULL EWES (291)

A very useful and entry although undoubtedly less money than previous weeks as the farsighted buyers catering for the forthcoming festival have already stocked up. James Hamilton has top price of the day at £90

Leading prices: J Hamilton £90, £75K Axell £86, £75, J Shippam £83, M Smith £81, P Button £80, I Richards £79, CG & AA Brooker & Son £78, J Gasson £76

STORE SHEEP (416)

A veritable humdinger, loyal supporter Keith Axell to the fore at £84, Plumpton College – Lamberts Farms, superb run selling to £74. We want your stores at Hailsham, bearing in mind the grass has dried up and without considerable cash output they will not fatten, the solution surely is to sell now. Leading prices: K Axell £84, Plumpton College-Lambert Farm £74, £68, (twice), Mrs MAE Clark £73, C Avery £70, BK Sargent £67, FS Major & Sons £67, MW Littmoden £66, M Lucas £65
