SHEEP (879)

MILK LAMBS (203)

Overall average 173.4p per kilo

A short entry but no matter, the biggest and best lambs sold really with with Goodwood Estates superb offering rightfully taking top position on the leader board at £89. Beautifully shown by flock master Nicholas Page who can seemingly do no wrong. In close attendance William New of Boyes & New £88, Arthur Wood £82.50 and "Hailsham's own" Michael Grove £80. In order to make top price, lambs must be meated and shut up overnight. Please keep in touch and let us know exactly what you have.

Top price per head:- Goodwood Estate £89, £85, EA Boyes & W New £88, £82.50, A Wood £80, M Grove £79.50, £77, £72, E Gingell £79 (twice), £76, FS Major & Sons £76, R Russell £70, MA Teear £70

STORE LAMBS (394)

The weekly store lamb sale is the jewel in Hailsham Market's crown. Fearsome competition between the big warring buyers pushed prices to the maximum. No other centre can lay claim to this level of trade. Please let us know what you have, we want them.

Mrs P M Bignell £63, £59.50, JP Gingell £62, £59.50 (twice), RG Whyman £62, £56.50 R Sargent £60, M McKay £58, £54.50, MA Teear £57.50, R J Felton £57, Lucy Andrew £55.50, R Blake £55.

CULL EWES (281)

Nationally trade has worsened with certain centres reporting an average below £40 per head. Although trade is far from wonderful we can boast to have been better than that. Please be warned there is little demand for the plain and very plain ewe, which surely will pay a handsome dividend if properly finished. Undoubtedly trade will improve, but unfortunately we can't say when!

Goodwood Estate £85, £83, £77, EA Boyes & W New £74, £63, FS Major & Sons £71, D Wooley £70, £65, C Unsted £69, Douglas Partners £65,

TF Hughes £65, J Holt £64, Shields Farming Partnership £64, R Russell £63
